Feed Me

Duet Christine Sweet & Theun Supheert

(Music Theun supheert & Christine Sweet Lyrics Christine Sweet)

Christine:

O black knight, will you come again, and feed me
Courageous prince, will you love again and tease me
There's no end, raise my friend and find me

Theun:

How can you walk away from me, where do I begin
Impossible pieces puzzling, where do I begin

No one came so close to me, now you're endless far
Fighting was to make you see where I was
I was all alone

Theun & Christine:

My whole world's on fire
And I'm so so tired
Just feel me

I'm so so cold
Will you keep and hold
Just feed me

Christine:

O black knight, make me come again, find me
Courageous prince, make me sigh again and see me
There's no end, raise my friend and find me

Theun:

No one came so close to me, now you're endless far
Fighting was to make you see where I was
I was searching home

Theun & Christine together:

My whole world's on fire
And I'm so so tired
Just feel me

You are in my dreams
On my vision screen
Just feed me

Well hold me if you can
Crawl if you care
Feed me
