

One Day

(Music & Lyrics Christine Sweet)

You and I, we were terrified
To be true, like the stars that shine
What was I, without a real good fight
Now you're gone, out of my sight

And there's nothing, nothing to dance for
Nothing, nothing to fight for

Chorus:
One day, I will find, the love I deserve

Now I'm crying, I am terrified
I know it's our own self-fulfilling prophecy, like the stars in the sky
And why did you have to flee so soon, away from a real good love
You threw your weapons away, I'm standing alone with my sword

And there's nothing, nothing to dance for
Nothing, nothing to fight for
You keep me hanging, out on the dance floor
Wondering, what is this good for

Chorus:
One day, I will find, the love I deserve
One day, I will find, the love I deserve

Bridge:
And so will you, hey hey, and it will make you blue, oohohohoho
And so will you, you're gonna be blue, too, oh hey hey hey

Chorus:
One day, I will find, the love I deserve
One day, I will find, the love I deserve

Outro:
One day, ooooohoho
One day, ohohowoo, ooooohoho, oooohoho
