

The Universe

(Music & Lyrics Christine Sweet)

Who wants to know their soul, not the mask that shows, all the way you know
When will it all begin, connecting from within, No one to lose, no one to win
On and on the world is turning, there must be something more above our heads oo hoo, oo oo hoo oo oo oo owohohowo

Chorus:

There is a mystery of the soul
Like the universe and black holes
ohowohowo ho ohowohowo ho ho
There is a mystery of the soul

What, what we try to hide is nothing more than light, we're beautiful inside Fear is corrupting every tear, but tears are liquid light, are we prepared to fight for the light
On and on the world is turning, there must be something more above our heads
oo hoo, oo oo hoo oo oo oo owohohowo

Chorus:

There is a mystery of the soul
Like the universe and black holes
ohowohowo ho ohowohowo ho ho
There is a mystery of the soul

Bridge:

We are not alone, we'll make on our own
But I don't wanna go, alone
We're so close to home, closer then you'll know
And we're not gonna go alone ooooohohoho

Chorus:

There is a mystery of the soul
Like the universe and black holes
There is a mystery of the soul
Like the universe and black holes

There is a mystery of the soul
