Intro:

Breath

Breath

Follow the path you cannot find
And bring me the real name of you
Listen to my cry of rhyme
And turn your water into wine

And with every word you kiss
Someone's soul you cannot trust
Do everything you fear
Devine everybody's lust

The road is on my trail
The road lies in your past

Breath

Breath

And in everybody's eyes
See the riddles of your mind
And with every vow you make
Comes the law in every shape

When the wind begins to howl
With the wolves to the moon
And the clouds start to bow
Under silver stars too soon

Heya heya heya hey, Heya heya heya hey
Heya heya heya hey, Heya heya heya hey
Heya heya heya hey, Heya heya heya hey
Heya heya heya hey, Heya heya heya hey

It's the dirt under your shoes
It's the dirt under your shoes
It's the dirt under your shoes
It's the dirt under your shoes
