

CHRISTINE SWEET
The Music

Time Soon

(Music & Lyrics Christine Sweet)

Where is the thrill inside, do you know what you came for
The devil ride soon behind, you know it's time soon
A little piece of mind, something to die for
A little piece of mind, something to die for

Chorus:

And the rain is pouring harder
There are things you need to learn
And the pain is going deeper
There are things you'll have to earn

Where is that smile so bright, do you know where you came from
Your demons are grinning inside, you know it's time soon
You've tasted a bitter regret, but that's nothing to die for Let me take all and forget there was something to hide from

Chorus:

And the rain is pouring harder
There are things you need to learn
And the pain is going deeper
There are things you'll have to earn

Outro:

Come on now
It's about time that you realize

And the rain is pouring harder
And the rain is pouring harder
And the rain is pouring harder
There are things you need to learn
